Bryan Cave Offers Diversity Scholarship to Second - Year Law Students

St. Louis, April 25, 2017 The international law firm Bryan Cave LLP today announced it has created a diversity scholarship program as part of its ongoing commitment to diversity and inclusion.

This new program will award diversity scholarships to up to four second - year law students. Each scholarship recipient will receive $10,000 total to help defray the cost of law school tuition and related expenses during the student's final year of law school. Half of the scholarship will be paid after successful completion of Bryan Cave's Summer Associate Program. The other half will be paid prior to the second semester of the recipient's third year of law school, providing they have received and accepted an offer to join the firm as an associate after completing their legal education.

All application materials must be received between June 1 and August 31 to be considered and should be sent to Tom Grewe, Chief Legal Recruiting & Development Officer, at Tom.grewe@bryancave.com. Specific instructions on the application process can be found here. "We know that diversity enriches the quality and fabric of our firm," said Tom Grewe, Bryan Cave's Chief Legal Recruiting and Development Officer. "It brings value to our people and also to our clients. This new scholarship program is an important addition to Bryan Cave's diversity efforts."

Bringing diversity and inclusiveness into every aspect of work and culture is one Bryan Cave's core values and a key focus of the firm's Strategic Plan.

"Our mission is to create a firm where women lawyers, lawyers of color, LGBTQ lawyers and lawyers with disabilities want to come and stay, and where they can thrive," said Lisa Martin, Bryan Cave's Chief Diversity Officer. "We look forward to building on our successes with the implementation of this scholarship program."
