

Emory Law Student Handbook Addendum

2018-2019 School Year

The language below is related to the section titled “Course Enrollment,” which starts on page 37. This language is an insertion on page 38, and is placed between “Credit Hour Policy” and “Credit for Non-Law School Courses.”

Credit for Non-Classroom Courses and Activities

J.D. students may take a maximum of 18 credits in courses or approved law school activities that do not meet in the classroom for traditional coursework. Examples of courses and activities included under the 18-credit limit include Moot Court, Mock Trial, Journals, the non-classroom portion of Externships, Directed Research, Directed Study, and Practicums in which students are required to do work outside of the traditional classroom setting. They do not include approved experiential courses that are taught in a classroom setting such as ADR, Negotiation, Doing Deals, and Clinics.
