

SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

and the politics of law

This conference will celebrate and honor Urvashi Vaid life's work through a series of panel discussions

October 5-6, 2023

PANELS

Lessons from Urvashi: Bridging Theory and Practice | Panelists each worked with Urvashi Vaid

John D'Emilio, Professor Emeritus of History and Women's and Gender Studies, University of Illinois-Chicago

Sue Hyde, Co-Founder/Former Executive Director, NGLTF Creating Change Conference Alysa Sewell, Associate Professor of Sociology, Emory University College of Arts and Sciences and Founder/Director of The Race and Policing Project

Dean Spade, Wisner Professor for Gender and Diversity, Seattle Law School

Law and Social Justice | An interdisciplinary lens exploring how law and social justice intersect

Sahar Aziz, Professor of Law and Chancellor's Social Justice Scholar, Rutgers Law School
Nan D. Hunter, Scott K. Ginsburg Professor of Law Emeritus, Georgetown University Law School

Shannon Minter, Legal Director, National Center for Lesbian Rights (NCLR)
Nadine Smith, Executive Director of Equality Florida

Visions for the Future | Identification of themes for potential activism and a vision for success

Honorable Simone Bell, Former Member, Georgia House of Representatives

Darren Hutchinson, Professor of Law, John Lewis Chair for Civil Rights and Social Justice, and Faculty Director, Center for Civil Rights and Social Justice, Emory University School of Law

Subasri Narasimhan, Assistant Professor, Emory University Rollins School of Public Health

Brenda V. Smith, Professor of Law and Director of Community Economic and Equity Development Clinic, American University Washington College of Law

Center for Civil Rights and Social Justice

EMORY
LAW