

A. JAMES ELLIOTT

Mr. Elliott received both his B.A. and J.D. degrees from Emory University. For 30 years he was a partner at Alston and Bird in Atlanta, Georgia and since 1996 has been the Associate Dean at Emory University Law School teaching Legal Profession, Finance and Banking.

He is a past president of the State Bar of Georgia and its Younger Lawyer Division and of the Old War Horse Lawyers Club and is a past Chair of the Georgia Institute of Continuing Education.

He is the developer of the ABA Gambrell award-winning program for the teaching of Ethics and Professionalism. He is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, the Georgia Bar Foundation and the American College of Real Estate lawyers.

He is a co-founder of Georgia Legal Services, which has provided legal help to hundreds of thousands of poor Georgians and of Georgia's IOLTA Program which has raised over $100,000,000 for legal/charitable causes.

He has received the Arthur von Briesen Award given annually by the National Legal Aid and Defender Association to one lawyer in private practice for substantial volunteer contributions to the legal assistance movement for the poor, the James Collier Award given by the Georgia Bar Foundation for life-time achievement and the Emory Williams Distinguished Teaching Award given by Emory University.